NARRATIVE:

Daniel Dawson, is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include carrying a concealed weapon, robbery, multiple cases of possession of a firearm by a felon, possession of controlled substances for sale, possession of controlled substances with a firearm, evading a peace officer, receiving stolen property, battery, DUIs, possession of a switch blade and driving with a suspended license. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being an 11 year term for possession of controlled substances for sale. Dawson was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 29, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Dawson qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member association and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
